

THE SOCIAL WORLD

PHONE 745

Younger Crowd Enjoy Dance.

Over a hundred of Chickasha society folk, mostly of the youngest of the young sets, enjoyed the dance given last night by Charles Hill Johns and Ellis Horn. Miss Edwina Ikard furnished the lively music for dance steps both new and old and the gay crowd danced untiringly until a late hour. Pink ice cream in cones and individual angel food cakes bearing the monogram "H. J." in pink icing refreshed the guests. The young hosts wore Lord Byron "sport" shirts with pink ties, an unusual addition to the pink and white color scheme. Master Jack Comer also had on an attractive pink and white costume. The grand march was led by Charles Hill Johns and Josephine Johnson.

The invitation list included Misses Josephine and Mary Lee Johnson, Margaret and Frances Terrell, Frances Dasher, Elizabeth Terrell, Jessie and Nina Stone, Thera and Wilma Whatley, Isabel and John Eva Duffy, Phoebe Heffner, Mary Olive Eskridge, Bernice McGhee, Isabel Erlich, Caro and Cathrine Bond, Barbara Gribb, Dorothy Thweatt, Joe Beryl Bettis, May Ruth Bridges, Lois Smith Rebecca Williams, Jewel Stine, Mollie May Phillips, Rose O'Shea, Mary Good, Thelma Wild Rose, Erin Jones, Ada Reeves, Francis Hillman of El Reno, Elizabeth Horn, Velma Horn of Pauls Valley, Frances Frey, Nell and Lucile Dasher, Amy Ellen and Lois Horn, Dorothy Callaway, Jennie Williams, Fay Hollingsworth, Martha Hill of Evansville, Ind., and Edith Flagler, Messrs Lawrence Fisher of Dallas, George Dasher, Howard Horn of Pauls Valley, Paul Hallum, Roy Gordon, Cecil Courtney, Jack and William Griffin, Egbert Horn, Mike Slusher, Reford Bond, Wayne Hollingsworth, Joe Eskridge, Roy Norton, Thurman and Hewett Williams, Raymond Huggins, Charles McGhee, Lucian Erwin, Sam Gribb, Fulton Bonner of Oklahoma City, Burrell Bridges, Allan Brownson, Carlos and Brooks Wilson, Paul Inman, Paul Spining, Raymond Heffner, James O'Shea, Paul Moore, Mayes Jones, Jack Wantland, Alfred Bettis, Leonard Good, Bruce Smith, Ed Riddle, Howard and Eddoray Hampton, Neil Johnson, Pete Heffner, Reece Smith and Charles McKnight, and Messrs. and Mesdames Harry Ludlow, T. H. Dwyer, Will Dwyer, T. B. Lowry, Ben Johnson, Tom Losey, Mrs. G. E. Pyles, Mrs. S. E. Ellis, Mrs. W. H. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johns.

Kress Girls Honored.

Oscar and Silvy Knowles were the hosts at a jolly hay ride party Wednesday evening, given in compliment to the girls of the Kress store. Starting before dark, the merry crowd rode out to the dam and there enjoyed "wienie" roast. The fun lasted until a late hour. The party included Misses Hallie Walker, Gladys Engelbreton, Myrtle Ivie, Alice Rushing, Ethel Duncan, Clarice Tatman, Thelma Stinson, Ella Cox, Louise and Adella Sharp, Eunice Hickman and Leila Stout, and Messrs. Chester Ferguson, Willie Hubbard, Verne Wilder, Zed Brock, Harry Carter, Roy Smith and Frank Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Rainey were the chaperons.

Picnic Is Well Attended.

Near two hundred "grown ups" attended the Methodist Sunday school picnic at Shavano Springs Wednesday evening and probably twice as many children enjoyed the outing. There was a free ride for all the children to the picnic grounds, bathing and swimming were indulged in and a big picnic supper filled to the utmost the children's cup of delight.

Prominent New Residents in City.

Daily Oklahoman. Mrs. John J. Merrill and her daughter, Imogene, left Thursday night for Chickasha, where they will join Mr. Merrill, who has been there the past two months. Much to the regret of their numerous friends in the city, they will make their future home in Chickasha, Mr. Merrill having engaged in business.

In the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Oklahoma City society loses two of its most delightful and cultivated members. Mr. Merrill founded one of the first schools of music in the state of Oklahoma, and has been its head until the present time.

In the same measure that Mr. Merrill has devoted himself to music, Mrs. Merrill has worked for the encouragement, patronage and appreciation of art. She was one of the group of women who founded the Oklahoma Art League, and to this day has been one of its devoted and efficient members, giving unstintingly of her time, knowledge and energy to the furtherance of its every enterprise—a statement that applies in the same measure to her work in the Art Renaissance Club.

Mrs. Merrill is one of those exquisite women whose presence suggests all the loveliest traditions that cling about the name of "woman." As long as she must leave Oklahoma City, it is a matter of gratitude that she is to remain within the confines of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill are located at 1014 South Eighth street.

Recital Is Pleasing.

It was a pleased and enthusiastic audience which heard the recital given last Friday night by the pupils of Mrs. A. B. Morgan's expression class, for the benefit of the Sans Souci scholarship fund. The pupils appeared to excellent advantage in a pageant, individual readings and a one act comedy, "American Beauties." The Pageant of Vocations displayed much thought, real ability and careful training on the part of Mrs. Morgan. Taking part in it were Walter Stuart, F. M. Frey, Alfred Bettis, Austin Russell, Allan Dale Savage, Jewel Stine, Mary Walsia West, Mollie May Phillips, Louis Naudain, Thelma Wild Rose, Eulalia Fitch, Jewel Stine, Phoebe Heffner, Elline Rouse, Kathryn Husky and Doris Gowdy.

In the comedy "American Beauties," the characters were well taken by Doris Gowdy, Zella Stoddard, Doris DuBose, Elline Rouse, Thelma Wild Rose and Kathryn Husky. The individual numbers were given by Ari Barry, Willie Fay Corbin and Jewel Stine. Excellent special numbers were given by Miss Mary Agnes O'Neill and Mr. Arts Goff, the former giving a delightfully humorous reading and the latter some choice violin solos. All of the numbers were heartily received.

Parcels Post Social a Success.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the Parcels Post Social given at the Presbyterian manse last Tuesday evening and about $20 was cleared by the ladies in charge. One hundred packages were sold and the eager purchasers would have bought more had there been any. A grab bag delighted the children and sherbert and cake was enjoyed by young and old.

Monday Bridge Club.

The high score at cards at the regular meeting of the Monday Bridge club this week was made by Mrs. J. C. Craven. Her reward was a pair of silk hose. Substitute hands were played by Mrs. W. C. Harwell and Miss Anne White.

Ashtons Moving to Chickasha.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Ashton and two daughters, Audrey and Anice, are leaving for Chickasha, where they will make their home. Mr. Ashton departed Tuesday, Mrs. Ashton and daughters to follow him the last of the week. In the meantime they will remain with Mrs. Ashton's sister, Mrs. F. R. Bull, and with Mr. Ashton's brother-in-law and wife, Judge and Mrs. George Fittenthum.

Mrs. Ashton returned last Friday after spending six delightful weeks on the Pacific coast, visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego. As she has been too much occupied since her return to see her friends here, she expects to make a trip to Oklahoma City within the next two weeks for that purpose.

Mrs. Ashton has been very prominent in club life. She is an ex-president of Sorosis club and is president of the second district of the State Federation of Women's clubs—Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashton will be at home in R. F. Thweatt's bungalow, 316 South Sixth street.

B. Natural Club.

The members of the B. Natural club spent Thursday afternoon very pleasantly with Miss Isabel Erlich at the Early hotel. Miss Barbara Gribb was the lesson leader and read a sketch of the life of Fritz Kreisler. Pretty instrumental selections were rendered by Misses Wilma Whatley, Isabel Erlich, Isabel Duffy, Phoebe Heffner, Margaret Terrell and Elizabeth Terrell, and interesting readings were given by Evonne Berkley and Willie Eay Corbin. After the program the members and guests danced and played for a merry half hour, and later Mrs. Will Dwyer accompanied them to the Owl for refreshments. Two guests were invited to the meeting, Misses Rebecca Williams and Audrey Evans. Miss Mary Olive Eskridge will be hostess at the next meeting. The members have received their club pins, which are as pretty as appropriate.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church will hold their regular monthly meeting next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. W. Ritz, 1427 Colorado avenue. Mrs. H. A. Cranwell will be lesson leader.

The Rural Neighbors and Priscilla clubs will entertain their families together next Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Harness. Supper will be served on the lawn and there will be a special musical program in the evening.

Maddox-Weightman.

Mrs. Flo Maddox and Mr. Morris Weightman were married Saturday, July 21, at 7 p. m. at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. David Russell, 1020 Chickasha avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Haley. Except for Mr. and Mrs. Russell, the wedding was kept a secret from friends or relatives until Sunday morning, when the surprise was sprung.

Mr. and Mrs. Weightman will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell for a few days, and expect to commence housekeeping in the near future.

Priscilla Club.

A happy meeting of the Priscilla Club was held Thursday evening with the Misses Artie, Alma, Edna and Ruth Buchanan. Music and fancy work made the evening hours pass swiftly and pleasantly, and lovely refreshments were served. The next regular meeting will be with the Misses Conn. The members present Thursday night were Misses Julia Smith, Birdie Tinsley, Grace Hays, Myrtle Benton and Roberta and Hazel Bledsoe. Special guests were Mrs. Knight, Misses Maggie Harris, Rose Heenan and Mitchell.

Mrs. Joe Dews and little son Rees left today for a two weeks' visit in Denver and Colorado Springs. Mrs.

Dews was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Effie Hyington, of Little Rock, who has been visiting in Chickasha the past two weeks. Mrs. Hyington will go on to the Pacific coast.

Miss Irene Wilson was hostess at a party this morning at her home, southwest of the city, in honor of her guest, Miss Margaret Stewart of Houston, Tex.

Which of the Evils?

Touch 'Em—Thanks, sir, for the dime; you see, I've been driven to these circumstances by a woman." Bertie—"Ah, did she reject or marry you?"

FEMITONE

or woman's relief is a strengthening tonic for weak, thin, nervous women. It is especially recommended for all menstrual irregularities, ovarian troubles and the many weaknesses and complaints peculiar to females. FEMITONE is a tonic and renovator, relieves pain and restores the entire system to a healthy and normal condition. Ask your druggist for it, and accept no substitute. Price $3.00 for $5.00.

7-22-1mo

THE YOUNGSTERS NOT OVERLOOKED

When the little tots tire of walking around enjoying the thousands of sights at the Oklahoma State Fair, or when the wee babies are due for their afternoon nap—don't deprive them of it. Take them to the Kindergarten and Nursery.

The kindergarten has all manner of things to interest the older children; blocks, toys, sand piles, etc. The nursery offers twenty-four snowy white sanitary beds to coax a nap, in competition with the many attractions on the grounds.

A trained nurse and members of the Mothers' Clubs of Oklahoma City are in charge.

What to do with the children, need not be a problem to any mother who comes to the fair.

The dates this year are September 25 to October 2.

DIARRHOEA QUICKLY CURED.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w

Benefited by Chamberlain's Liniment.

"Last winter I used Chamberlain's Liniment for rheumatic pains, stiffness and soreness of the knees, and can conscientiously say that I never used anything that did me so much good."—Edward Craft, Elba, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w Radium Found in Dew. An Italian university professor claims to have found radium in ordinary dew.

TRAVELING MAN'S EXPERIENCE.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief. An old friend told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a doubled dose, according to the directions, and went to sleep after the second dose. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man, but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w

Close Saturday Night At 10 O'clock

The Eagle's Great July Clearance Sale will close Saturday Night at 10 O'clock. Don't overlook taking advantage of the sale prices the next 2 days.

Eagle Mercantile Company

Here next week. 1916 Studebakers from $850 to $1,050. 4's and 6's. P. G. Spining, Distributor

CHAS. McKNIGHT

PHONE 414

McKNIGHT & CLOUD

EDD E CLOUD

PHONE 414

Cleaners, Pressers, Tailors

We Clean, Press and Repair everything for everybody. You ought to see us and we want to see you. Let us clean and press your summer suit.

You will look better, feel better and your clothing will last longer